J. O. Little, ex-warden of York county, congratulated the town council on Monday evening on its purchase of the former Imperial Bank building to serve as a municipal office.

WHOO-COUGH IN TOWN, M.O.H. GIVES ADVICE

"There are several cases of whooping-cough in town," Dr. J. H. Wesley, M.O.H., stated this week.

"The regulations for the control of communicable diseases state that each person having this disease is to be isolated for three weeks after the commencement of the disease," Dr. Wesley said. "Of course the quarantine of the whooper, Dr. Wesley would be much more effective if it could be done earlier, but the trouble is that the symptoms of whooping-cough are no different from ordinary bronchitis, with the cough for a period of two weeks and at about the commencement of the third week the whoop commences.

"The house is to be placarded and children contacts are to be quarantined for 14 days. Children of 12 years of age who are not immune are allowed to continue at school without change of residence. Parents will kindly observe the regulations and save trouble for all.

"Whooping-cough is hard for any person, but the younger the individual the more severe is the disease and it very often is fatal to infants.

"As a preventive, the toxoiding has justly become very much used. The health authorities have put on school clinics for diphtheria and scarlet fever, but the parents are asked to have their children toxoided by their family physician for whooping-cough as there will be no whooping-cough clinic at the schools.

"The toxoiding consists of three doses at intervals of three weeks. Do not wait till your boy or girl has been exposed to the disease before the toxoiding, for it will not likely be of any use then."

HAVE RECORD RETURNS

The largest poppy day returns ever collected by the Newmarket Veterans' Association are reported by Secretary Jack Duffield. Collections of $247.43, less $5 expenses, made net returns of $242.43.

Mrs. Fred Cass was tag day convener. She was assisted by Miss Bertha Neilly and about 40 public and high school girls, who tagged from morning to night, and found a generous response from the public.

"Inasmuch"

Having vacated the editorial columns to high school writers for this, Education, week, we must discuss on this page the action of the town council in ruling that there is to be no public health nurse at the present time.

Let us recall a few things. The Newmarket Home and School Association initiated this movement over a year ago. The board of health consisting of Dr. J. H. Wesley, M.O.H., Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales and W. J. Patterson turned the proposal down early in January. Mayor Dales announced subsequently that he had voted in favor of the proposal.

Early in May Mayor Dales acted as chairman of a public meeting sponsored by the Home and School Association to hear Miss Edna Moore, chief public health nurse of the province of Ontario.

Dr. Wesley, introducing the speaker, after indicating that he had been thinking more favorably of the proposal, stated: "The way things are looking now it is only a matter of time till all towns of this size will be proud to sponsor a health nurse. I would suggest that if the subject seems to be so popular with all organizations it should be passed on to the town council to be voted on at elections next December."

Mayor Dales invited the meeting to send a representative delegation to a town council meeting being held that same week.

Representatives of the high school, the public schools, the separate school, the Lions club and other organizations attended the council meeting. Chairman of the delegation, Mrs. Harry Bell, of the Home and School Association, said that the department of health had asked the Home and School Association to sponsor the proposal.

"They have found that 44 percent of recruits have defective health," she said. "That is why they are concerned about child health."

Mayor Dales said: "I have an idea it costs this little town of 4,000 people $100,000, in loss of time at school, at the factories, hospitalization, etc. It costs more than to run the whole town, many times more than the costs of education. . . . One of the finest things in this town would be to have a community nurse."

The council referred the matter to the board of health, asking for a report for the next council meeting.

The council at its next meeting had before it the following resolution from the board of health: "That this board recommends the appointment of a public health nurse as of January, 1943, provided the electors of the town vote in favor of it at a plebiscite to be submitted the first Monday in December, 1942."

Mayor Dales commented: "I think that the board of health is not in touch with the feeling of the people of this town. I would advise the appointment of a public health nurse for four or five months and sell the people the idea. Then they can see what they are getting for their money."

The following Monday, May 23, the Lions club passed a resolution asking appointment of a public health nurse to begin her duties with the opening of school. The Women's Institute, the Catholic Women's League and the Home and School Association sent similar letters to the council. The Home and School Association thought that the council should act without the cost of a plebiscite.

The council also received from the latter organization a letter from Miss Moore, the chief health nurse, telling of the service a nurse would render in reducing the maternal death rate, the infant death rate, assisting with immunization against smallpox, diphtheria, whooping-cough, scarlet fever and tetanus, control of tuberculosis, nutrition and health education, working both in the schools and in the homes.

Dr. Dales said: "There are so many things a nurse could do. I think that it is our duty to see that children can hear and see properly. A public health nurse would save this town a lot of money."

The town council by resolution asked that the board of health reconsider its recommendation that the town not engage a public health nurse until after taking a vote of the citizens. That was on June 15.

The M.O.H., Dr. Wesley, replied with a public statement that in his opinion it would be better to spend the $2,000 on war bonds. He added: "Still I am only one and have no desire to impose my pessimistic views on the town in the matter of engaging a health nurse, for it is the democratic right and duty to decide this matter by a plebiscite submitted to the electors at the next municipal election in December."

Subsequently the town council wrote to the various organizations that had asked for a health nurse and asked whether they would contribute to the financial support of a health nurse. They properly replied that they thought the money should be raised through the tax rate; just as money is raised for education, police and other public services.

The question now is why a council which had been so sympathetic with a project and which had tried to persuade the board of health to take a favorable attitude should, without discussing its change of opinion with the Home and School Association and other interested organizations, (1) fail to make provision for a vote, designated by the board of health as the one way that it could be persuaded; and (2) pass a resolution to declare "that the present is not the time to inaugurate the employment of a public health nurse and that no action be taken at the present time."

How could a mayor who had given such good leadership—who had made so many declarations in favor of immediate appointment of a public health nurse give his approval, even tacitly, to a resolution shelving the appointment of a nurse until after the war?

Dr. Dales knows that this town, which a few years ago had seven doctors, faces this winter with three or perhaps four doctors. Dr. Dales knows that even if the town has four doctors, two of them will not be able to take night calls, and that the other two will be so over-worked that they will be able to take only dire emergency night calls.

Dr. Dales knows that even now doctors are having to ask people to come to their offices when sometimes it would be better if they could be treated at home. This will be even more true in the winter.

Dr. Dales knows that it is the people who can least afford to pay a doctor who would be the chief beneficiaries of a health nurse.

Dr. Dales knows that East Gwillimbury council, reviewing last winter, in March passed a resolution setting out that in spite of the fact that the council had undertaken to pay one-half of the medical fees of indigent patients "cases have been reported where doctors have refused to attend patients in the township," and asking the provincial department of health to support some plan of state medicine.

Dr. Dales knows—has said, as quoted above—that a health nurse would help to control sickness and disease, and save money for the people of the town. He knows that a health nurse might easily prevent a costly epidemic in the town.

He knows that a health nurse is far more needed today than in "normal times."

We believe that Dr. Dales is still interested in his old friends, "the common people," and that he will ask the council to reconsider its resolution and move to appoint a health nurse without further delay.

A vote of the people is out of the question now, but there can be no doubt as to what the decision would have been had the council, the Home and School Association, the Lions club and other co-operating organizations asked for a favorable vote. The vote, of course, would not have been a "money vote" in the ordinary sense, but merely a test of public opinion and would have been open to every citizen, married or single, parent or childless, tenant or landlord.

'CANUCKS ARE BETTER THAN GERMAN FOES'

C. V. CHARTERS TELLS OF BOMBERS MAKING RAID ON GERMANY

ADDRESSES LIONS

"We shouldn't use the word sacrifice in this country," Clarence V. Charters, Brampton, managing director of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association, told the Lions club and their war veteran guests at a meeting on Monday evening.

"We may do a little self-denial in this country but we are not called to make any sacrifices compared with what the people in Britain are making," Mr. Charters said.

Mr. Charters returned a few weeks ago from a government-sponsored press trip to Britain by bomber plane. While in Britain the group had interviews with General A. G. MacNaughton, Prime Minister Churchill, Sir Stafford Cripps, Lord Woolton, minister of food, and other members of the cabinet. They were shown army manoeuvres, taken aboard a destroyer which played a part at Dieppe, and were guests overnight at an R.A.F. station, having supper with the fliers before they made a raid on Duisburg and waiting all night for their return.

ASK CONTRIBUTIONS TO CHRISTMAS FUND

Newmarket Lions club will carry on its Christmas work this year for the underprivileged children of Newmarket.

Chairman Fred Thompson said at a Lions club meeting Monday evening that his committee had pared the list radically to leave only the names of the most needy.

Mr. Thompson asked that contributions to the fund should be made to The Era and Express, to the fund treasurer, H. E. Lambert, Bank of Toronto, or to any member of the Lions club. All contributions will be acknowledged in these columns.

Let George Do It, Is Scored At High School

"Our Great Heritage," was the subject of Rev. Henry Cotton, of Trinity United church, at a Remembrance day service at Newmarket high school yesterday afternoon.

Principal J. B. Bastedo was chairman. Rev. A. B. Stein, Rev. J. A. Koffend and Rev. G. H. Johnson took part in the service. Students taking part were Ina Walker, Eula Pollock, Francis Elphinstone, Donald Cribar (cornet) and Betty Hope.

"Our heritage is not land, not people, but freedom under God," Mr. Cotton said. "It is mainly in time of war that the price of freedom is brought forcibly to our attention. In peace-time we blithely go our way, taking for granted our greatest heritage."

"My fear is that even in this fourth year of the most titanic struggle that the world has ever known there is still far too much complacency, far too great a tendency to let someone else make the sacrifice to preserve our freedom. The people of the motherland count no sacrifice too great to preserve their great heritage. Dare we do less?"

How Things Looked In 1916, Revealed By Globe

Optimism which proved early is found in a Sept. 26, 1916, issue of The Globe, Toronto, which Lawrence Wright found in his father's store when housecleaning preparatory to turning the building over to the new owner.

The Globe told of advances on the Somme front by the British and French and of a new Russian offensive. The Globe said that the rapidity and extent of the Somme advance "prove that the armies of General Haig and General Foch have at last obtained that superiority over the enemy which may before long carry them entirely through the German defence and enable them to continue the campaign in the open fields."

Newmarket Gets No Dagger Pennant But Totals $585,000

"York county north" went over its objective of $1,600,000 with general canvass subscriptions of $1,604,350. Special names put the total up to $2,114,850. Newmarket, with subscriptions of $235,800, fell short of its objective of $250,000. With special names included, Newmarket subscribed $585,800. Newmarket's total included a splendid subscription of $11,800 from Newmarket training camp. Aurora, Markham village, Stouffville, Woodbridge, and Markham township were the only five of 14 "York county north" districts to make their objectives. Stouffville reached 150 percent of its objective and unallotted subscriptions of $70,000 brought the total subscriptions over the $1,600,000 objective.

RETURN TO GOD WILL BRING VICTORY—STEIN

Important as it is to remember the sacrifices made during the last war, it is even more important to remember the sacrifice made at Calvary 2,000 years ago.

Rev. A. B. Stein told a congregation which included members of the Newmarket Veterans' Association and the Citizens' band at a Remembrance service in the Congregational-Christian church on Sunday morning.

"People ask when this mess will be brought to an end," Mr. Stein said. "It will be brought to an end when people bow the knee to God."

Mrs. W. B. Epworth sang a lovely solo.

President Alfred Smith hung a wreath on the soldiers' memorial window on behalf of the Newmarket Veterans' Association. A bugler sounded the Last Post and Reveille.

No Health Nurse Now And No Vote, Councillors Decide

After a discussion which the council asked should not be reported, Newmarket town council on Monday evening passed the following resolution:

"That in view of the present critical times, although this council realizes the advisability of having a public health nurse in normal times, be it resolved that this council feels that the present is not the time to inaugurate the employment of a public health nurse and that no action be taken at the present time."

The resolution was moved by Councillor Wm. Dixon and seconded by Reeve F. A. Lundy. The discussion followed a question as to whether or not there was to be a vote on a health nurse.

The following members of the council were present: Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales, Reeve Lundy, Councillors A. D. Evans, J. L. Spillette, Frank Bowser, A. V. Higginson and Dixon.

By their action, and by their failure to pass a by-law providing for a vote on the question, the council made it certain that there would be no vote on the question of a health nurse at the time of the municipal election. Notice of a test of public opinion would have had to be advertised this week.

The council passed a by-law setting nomination day for mayor, reeve, deputy-reeve, six councillors and three public school trustees as Friday, Nov. 27, and election day, if an election is necessary, as Monday, Dec. 7.

Earlier in the evening Dr. J. H. Wesley, M.O.H., had said to the council: "There is quite a strong movement in town for a health nurse and I promised to ask you to bring the question before the electors for a vote next municipal election."

Asked if the board of health had recommended the nurse, Dr. Wesley said: "We have not recommended a nurse being appointed but we have said that we recommend that it be brought before the electors, and if approved by the electors that a nurse be appointed in January, 1943."

MARKET WILL REMAIN UNCHANGED FOR NOW

Councillor Frank Bowser asked the town council on Monday evening whether it wished to change the market day from Saturday morning to Friday afternoon for the winter months.

Councillor J. L. Spillette thought that some action should be taken to stimulate interest in the market.

Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales ruled that the market day should be left alone until a deputation comes to the council and asks for a change.

MAYOR WANTS SURVEY BY OUTSIDE EXPERTS

Fire Inspector Joseph Brammar reported to the town council on Monday evening: "Having inspected the places of business in town in general at different times through the year, I'd report same is in a very satisfactory condition and an improvement over past years in respect to fire hazards."

"I don't think that that is a satisfactory report," said Mayor Dr. L. W. Dales. He suggested that there should be a report on the fire hazards and how they had been taken care of. Dr. Dales said that he would like to bring fire underwriters or a fire inspector into the town.

N. L. Mathews, K.C., clerk and solicitor, said that the A.R.P. organization had made a thorough canvass of the town.

Reeve F. A. Lundy said that he had asked fire underwriters to re-survey the entire town.

IT'S SCHOOL WEEK

This is Education week. Era and Express editorials this week have been written by Newmarket high school and Sutton continuation school students. Newmarket high school has also contributed a news column.

Educational week calls attention to the importance of young people, their teachers and their schools. All citizens, whether they have children of their own or not, are equally concerned about the training and welfare of the next generation.

Dr. J. H. Wesley, M.O.H., gave The Era and Express the following explanation of the action taken by the council Monday evening:

"At a meeting of the town council Monday night a resolution was passed that the matter of the employment of a health nurse for the town schools would not be submitted to the electors this year.

"The board of health and the council are strongly in favor of a health nurse but that the present is not the opportune time for the town to assume any new obligation that can be put over till the end of the war.

"The town council has been involved in several heavy unforeseen expenditures during 1941 and 1942. These expenditures have been necessary even in spite of the war slogan that fills the heart of every loyal Canadian these days, 'Nothing matters now but victory.'"

VALUE OF DEFENCE TRAINING COURSE

Mary Murdison, Newmarket High School

This year a defence training course has been adopted in the upper school classes at the high schools. This is an excellent plan of preparation for actual bombing raids, so that a number of trained volunteers would be available always.

The course covers lectures on the organization and value of the A.R.P., familiarization with different types of bombs and war gases, a First Aid course, instruction in navigation, map reading and signalling for boys, as well as knowledge of the internal combustion engine.

The school is the logical place to begin this type of training, for students do not have to make a special effort to attend these classes, as adults might, and would certainly prove of great assistance in action.

Some training of citizens in the methods of war is urgently needed, in order that we may not be taken unawares or unprepared, if treachery or violence should strike our country. It has happened in many lands, we must prevent it here. One of the quickest and most effective methods is this defence training course for the school students.

WE CAN, SO LET'S

Audrey Hunt, Newmarket High School

Stop! Save that dollar! It can be of great value to our government and our fighting heroes of the front line. The box of chocolates does look tempting and no doubt she would enjoy them, but dollars are precious and don't forget the calorie situation too. Then—put that money back into your pocket and don't take it out until you ask for war saving stamps in return. If we all reduce our luxuries voluntarily and generously, the time when we can get twice as much for the same amount and have the satisfaction of a clear conscience will come sooner. Last year we did very well in our N.H.S. War Savings campaign, but we must admit we were still a bit extravagant. Remember those shows you went to see to pass the time and really didn't enjoy? Perhaps if you saw fewer shows your enjoyment would be increased and at the same time you could be helping your form to lead the N.H.S. War Savings drive. Then there are those Saturday afternoons when a country walk would be more exciting than sipping sodas and you would both enjoy it. Last year we made petty sacrifices and we reached a grand total of $1,500—something to be proud of. But this year let's really burst the buttons off our vests by reaching into our pockets and boosting the total! We can, so let's!

EDUCATION IN WAR TIME

Ruby M. Strasser, Newmarket High School

"Close the schools and use the money for other purposes during war." This has actually been the agitation of some people.

Are they prejudiced against education or are they parsimonious? Certainly they have no thought for the future generation, which is to carry on the job they appear to know so much about. Have they considered the outcome of such drastic measures?

During the present struggle many of our most promising young men are being killed, who ordinarily would live a peaceful life as doctors, dentists, businessmen, scientists or chemists. With the sudden gap of trained, skilled workers, the older ones will not be able to retire until the coming generation, that does not have to fight, can take their places. How can that be done with our schools closed? The world cannot exist without such people.

Catherine the Great was one of Russia's worst despots. People received no education and existed as serfs. In a letter to the governor of Moscow, she wrote, "The day when our peasants shall wish to become educated both you and I will lose our places." If education is neglected and our schools are closed, what is there to prevent serfdom?

People must be educated before they can vote, if not, democracy will be lost, and is that not what we are fighting for?

True, schools are expensive, but their students, after graduating, are ready to compensate the government. Doctors and dentists help the nation to keep healthy and fit. New inventions and discoveries of chemists and scientists are essential in the war effort and in peace time.

Who dares to close our schools?

WHAT SHOULD I DO IN AN AIR RAID?

Ina Walker, Newmarket High School

What would you do, and where would you go if you were on Main St. in Newmarket and an alarm was sounded indicating the approach of one hundred German planes within ten minutes? I can assure you that approximately 75 percent of the people wouldn't have the slightest idea of what to do. One aeroplane travelling 200 miles per hour drops 20 incendiary bombs per second for three miles firing every 60 yards. As soon as one of these bombs falls it immediately sets fire to the surroundings. What would you do in this case if one of these rascals were to fall inside of your bedroom window while you were half asleep? Leave it alone for one and a half minutes at least! Do not run over to it, pick it up and put it under arm because your head might be blown off. Then the stirrup pump should be secured and the water forced on the fast spreading fire. Do not use a direct water force on the bomb because this will cause it to explode. (Spray is used directly on the intruder to make it burn faster.)

This study of incendiary bombs and gases has been introduced into all high schools in Canada, and it certainly is essential. The Nazis' planes could fly from Germany to Toronto and points farther north such as Newmarket within 24 hours, and within 15 minutes the entire town would be ablaze. Many people would be killed and others would be too frightened for activity. Why? Simply because they have not been warned in time to prepare. We must do our part in fighting fires in these critical times. We must have enough wits to remain calm because we all know that we must move quickly and wait our turn to reach the air raid shelter. There should be system and order while filing to one of these underground places.

The school is going to be turned into an air raid shelter for the pupils in case of a raid during school hours. Filing is going to be practised this year. We hope that this training has not been neglected too long, but fellow citizens we are acting and striving to act fast.

YOUTH! DEMOCRACY! WAR!

By Phyllis Burnham, Sutton Continuation School

It has been said, "The destiny of any nation, at any time, depends upon the opinions of its young men and young women under 25." Have you ever really given this statement some deep thought?

Perhaps you think that youth is not fully experienced, not as mentally developed, nor as serious minded as adults. But still, youth is privileged to maintain an opinion. And it has opinions on what it does not like, and on what it can take. We high school students believe that the things we do and think are important. Our football games, tea-dances, school concerts and plays are of the utmost importance to us because we take part in them. The thoughts we have on schools, books, governments and current events are just as important to the rest of the public as to us, because we are the people who will be the qualified citizens of Canada in a few years. This is the time for us to prepare for what course we will follow when we take over the controls. This is why we must maintain the highest standard in our educational system.

We read and we think; moreover, we're fairly level-headed. Yes, we know we'll win the war. We'll work and we'll fight for what we believe. Democracy? We never thought of anything else, for our life is democracy! Are you looking for Canada's future leaders? Then look no further. We represent all ages and opinions. And though you might never think it, we have our serious thoughts and discussions. Strong, vigorous, thoughtful—that's us—representing young Canada, the nation with the future. Now as never before Canada needs our help. We won't let her down. We are clean, strong, tough young students. It is we who have to face a chaotic world rocked by wars and strife. We must play our part to restore sanity and peace to the nations. Are we worthy of our freedom, and capable of holding it? We're boys; we're girls; we're students; we are Canadians!

WE, THE STUDENTS, SPEAK

Beth Tremayne, Sutton Continuation School

This is National Education Week. Canadian students should be thankful and proud that they live in a democracy where truth is taught in schools, and where Nazi lies are not the food on which their young minds must be nurtured.

Canada is fighting for this freedom now, and Canadian students have been made aware of the threat endangering their education. As a result, education has taken a more serious trend. The school term has been shortened in order that students may go to work on farms, or in war industries. Within this short time, the regular school course must be taught, as well as the subjects newly added to the curriculum. This means more concentrated study, and harder work than ever before. But Canada is determined, and Canadian youths will not betray the trust put in them.

In this age of modern invention, education is of more useful nature. Subjects which will be of use in the world are stressed. Mathematics and science are essential to the manufacturer; languages are needed in the surgical field.

Thus, in this time of war, we find that education has assumed a higher standard. Young Canada must step up and fill the positions of those who are in the fighting services. Young Canadians are more than aware of the seriousness of the jobs they are doing, and therefore they must have a precise knowledge of the particular work for which they are suited.

Nazi eyes are on Canada, but educated Canadian youth will do its part to see that Nazi hands stay off.

PROBLEMS OF FOURTH YEAR HIGH

Maureen Shannon, Sutton Continuation School

As this is Education Week, I feel I can now unburden my shoulders of the problems of Fourth Year High.

Ever since this war began, it has had an effect on education. The average student has found added responsibilities at home, added social war-work and added courses on the curriculum. All this has to be accomplished in a limited time.

The shortened school term is approximately six months whereas before the war the term was ten full months. With the shortage of manpower, it falls upon the shoulders of our school children to pick up and carry on in the positions left vacant by our fighting men.

To our already full-time curriculum of modern history, mathematics, languages and sciences, defence training has been added. All these worthwhile subjects have to be taught and learned in approximately six short months. All these have to be taken in with the other responsibilities of war, in less time. How can we manage it?

To win this war, education must play a great part. If the working men of tomorrow are not educated, how can we carry on after the war? Education must be handled with the knowledge of our elders. Therefore, we students must be well educated and we must help to win the war in any way possible. How can we be well equipped for the future if we neglect our education? Answer us Canada!

Mr. King on Sunday night had said that Canada would continue diplomatic relations with Vichy even if the French did offer resistance to U. S. arms.

President Roosevelt on Monday night said that Vichy had "severed" relations with Washington. He said: "I regret this action on the part of M. Laval." He also said: "The government of the United States can do nothing about the severance of relations on the part of the Vichy government."

Of People And Things

FUTURE LEADERS

By Isabel Inglis Colville

In these days when leaders mean so much, it behooves us to think about them. In peacetime we take them for granted and feel comfortably, that even if they are not particularly brilliant, at least they can lead us along well worn paths without any great blundering.

But in war time leadership is another thing — the safety of soldiers, sailors and airmen, and in this war, the civilian population, all depends on efficient leaders. Some leaders like Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek and Marshal Timoshenko seem to be the products of their environment—an answer to a need so pressing and extreme, that only genius could be that answer. Other leaders are the product of careful training, not from necessity, but because of a desire for the task of leading, maybe because leadership was a family trait through several generations, or maybe a hit and miss desire for a vocation.

But anyway, most leaders have to be trained and it is this lack of training that, coming down from great leaders to the compass of our daily life, makes it hard to get many women to assume the duties of leaders, even in small societies. Their secret fear that they won't do as well as somebody else, hangs over them like a nightmare and makes them refuse to take office where, more often than not, their dormant talent for leadership might have a chance to awaken.

All this went through my head like lightning as I attended a meeting last Friday. Not a grown-up meeting, you'll understand, not at all. I had been invited to a Red Cross meeting of the Bogart-town school children, at the school house.

Some 24 women responded to the neat little invitations issued and as we watched the proceedings we learned things. One was where our future leaders were being trained. You see, the regular business of the meeting was conducted as usual, one of the pupils acting as president. This office was filled by a girl, but the secretary and treasurer were both boys. They had reports on how the children had kept their desks; and on their conduct during recesses—these both given by pupils. Then came a program which reflected immense credit on Miss McQueen and on Mrs. Albert Ridley, their music director.

Readings and recitations which showed that more work is being given to enunciation than used to be thought necessary, and several choruses and duets, which gave one an opportunity to see the way the love of music and its interpretation was being developed in these small people.

One chorus had a descendant which was admirably sustained, in spite of the very natural tendency of youthful singers to "sing like the other fellow." There were two little folk dances which were charming and which the children entered into as if they loved them.

These were presented by the younger children, and what if the two small boys showed a decided inclination to choose each other as partners—they recovered courage and gallantry before the dance was over, so all was well.

A splendid skit was given at the last—Miss Canada, encouraging her people to produce more, nor

The Wartime Wages Control Order, P. C. 5963 provides in Section 48 (iv):

A Veteran at 20!

Back from scores of bombing raids over a dozen countries, this young airman has found adventure in the skies! Just out of his 'teens, an eager youth in years, he's a veteran in experience. He's a first-line fighting man, trained in the science of war at 5-miles-a-minute!

He and his buddies in R.C.A.F. air crew are team-mates. Gunner, Wireless Operator, Bomber, Pilot, Navigator—all work together as a smooth, swift "attack team" in a giant bomber. Their targets accurately surveyed in advance by daring reconnaissance pilots—their flight protected by the blazing guns of fighter planes—the bombers wing their relentless way to smash Nazi nerve-centres.

The expanded Air Training Plan has room for more men who want to be with these fighting comrades of the skies. Right now applications are being accepted for air crew duty, at R.C.A.F. Recruiting Centres throughout Canada.

If you are physically fit, mentally alert, over 17½, and not yet 33, you are eligible. If you are over 33, but have exceptional qualifications, you may still be considered. Lack of formal education is no longer a bar to enlistment.

CANADA'S HARVEST CONTRIBUTES TO VICTORY

Recently the Prime Minister said: "The production increases already achieved by Canadian agriculture have been little short of miraculous." The contribution the harvest will make to Canada's war effort and to victory is of tremendous importance not only to this country, but to the Empire and our Allies.

No institution has more appreciation or understanding of the Canadian farmer's role in this war than The Bank of Toronto. It stands today, as it has since 1855, ready to help farmers solve their financial problems.

The manager of our nearest branch will be glad to have you call and discuss your requirements with him.

TWO YOUNG MEN

with faith in themselves

BEFORE the war, two young graduates in chemistry faced the future with no assets but technical training and unbounded faith in themselves. They planned to capitalize on their years in college by manufacturing a certain chemical product. "But we'll need some money to get started," they said. "Let's put it up to the bank."

Their banker decided that their faith was well founded in character, ability, energy. "We'll finance you to start in a small way," he said. "Make a test on the local market first."

Presently the product was being sold all over Canada and exported to the United States and overseas. Now it fills a wartime demand. The enterprise employs a large number of people.

This actual example illustrates how this country's Chartered Banks help credit-worthy people to benefit themselves, their fellows and their country under the democratic system of free enterprise.

Banks, like any other business, exist because they provide service which a community needs and is willing to pay for at a rate which will yield a reasonable profit. Chartered Bank profits average less than one-half of one per cent a year on total assets. Few, if any, other businesses operate on as small a margin.

Prohibitive, King Council Says Of Fire Agreement

King township council passed the following resolution at a meeting at Nobleton on Saturday: "That our clerk be instructed to write the town of Aurora re fire area by-law and fire protection in this municipality and inform them that this council is not interested in this agreement and by-law on the grounds that the terms set forth are prohibitive for this municipality."

"And that we are willing and ready to discuss this matter at any time on a fair and amicable basis, and in fact are anxious to get a satisfactory agreement with them. Provided the town of Aurora is prepared to meet us on a business basis."

The resolution was moved and seconded by Councillors E. M. Legge and L. B. Goodfellow.

Mrs. Marjorie Boyd, 25, who before enlisting a few months ago was a munitions worker, is now stationed with the C.W.A.C. at the regional intelligence branch, Washington, D.C. Marjorie Webster, 19, who was at home before signing up, is in the censorship branch of the C.W.A.C. in Toronto.

Bomber Crashes On King Township Farm, Fliers Safe

Lost in the fog and rain a Hudson twin-engine bomber of the Dorval ferry command, Montreal, P.Q., crashed on the farm of Wesley Walls, 3th concession of King around Monday midnight.

The plane went down about 300 yards after striking the ground, crashing through four fences and winding up, turned around, on the neighboring field of Stanley Terry. Parts of the plane were scattered widely about by the crash for many yards from the plane and those who have seen the wreckage term it "a miracle" that the quartet of airmen were not killed.

Making their way through the rain, the quartet of airmen staggered to Mr. Walls' home suffering from cuts, bruises and shock. Dr. J. L. Urquhart, Aurora, was called to the scene and the men were taken to York county hospital at Newmarket.

TWO ASSESSMENTS LOWERED BY COURT

A court of revision composed of Mayor Frank Underhill, Reeve C. A. Malloy, Deputy-Reeve C. E. Sparks and Councillors Ross Linton and A. A. Cook heard four appeals from Assessor W. H. Taylor's 1943 roll. Two appeals were allowed. One was refused and one was referred to the town council for further consideration.

First appeal heard was by Mrs. Lloyd Hill, Richmond Hill, who requested a lower assessment on her property known as the "Teasdale property" on Yonge St. The court refused the appeal.

Miss E. Murray, appearing on behalf of the Murray estate, was successful in obtaining a reduction of $500 on building assessment on the property known as the "Thornton farm" on Kennedy St. Since the original assessment had been made some of the buildings on the premises had been torn down and the property generally had deteriorated in value.

Thomas Patrick, Metcalfe St., secured a lowered assessment of $200 on the residence on his property. It had been raised this year $550 by Mr. Taylor. The court reduced the increase by $200 in view of the property still being in the process of being improved. Next year when the property is completed the assessment will be higher.

The court found itself in a quandary in dealing with the appeal of John Bodfish, who appealed an annual sewage tax of $32.

"I am assessed this amount, yet the town cannot give me sewage connection because the levels are wrong," said Mr. Bodfish. "I asked for sewer connections and you told me I could not get them. A septic tank cost me $92. If I cannot get sewer connections I should not have to pay the tax."

"It is a strange thing to charge a man taxes when we cannot give him what we ask him to pay for," said Mayor Frank Underhill.

"The town solicitor says the council should deal with this and not the court of revision." The court asked the council to deal with the problem.

Governor-General Rewards Aurora Scout's Bravery

Scout Lorne Reid was presented with the Gilt Cross, highest Boy Scout award for life-saving, at a ceremony in Aurora high school auditorium on Friday evening.

Scout Commissioner Clarke Locke made the presentation. The citation, signed by the Earl of Athlone as Chief Scout for Canada, told how Scout Reid on March 8, 1942, "heard screaming from the direction of the Holland river, which was swollen by the spring thaw and constant rain. He ran to a bridge, where he observed a child in the water. He dived in fully clothed and after considerable difficulty, owing to the spring freshets, got the boy ashore and rendered artificial respiration."

David Snell presented the Shell trophy, the gift of his mother, Mrs. Thomas Dann, to Troop Leader John Crysdale as "the Scout of the year." He will have the trophy for a year and permanently hold a miniature trophy.

John Crabtree, chairman of the group committee, presented former Scoutmaster Dr. G. A. C. Guntun with a silver Boy Scout figure in appreciation of his work with the Aurora troop. Dr. Guntun is now leading the L.T.B. troop at the Richmond Hill orphanage.

Field Secretary Edgar Jones administered the oath to several new Scouts, Wm. Linton, Ian Murray and Howard Milne.

The new scoutmaster is Fred. Harvie of the Aurora high school staff. Scout Ross Cowie-Mabin of Unionville, was a visitor.

North York Conservatives Will Make Winnipeg Trip

"North York will have its full quota of delegates at the national Conservative convention next month," Secretary Nelson Boylen, deputy-reeve of North York township and secretary of the North York Conservative association, told The Era and Express on Friday.

"Our delegates will be announced soon following a meeting of the central executive," said Mr. Boylen. "There are no joy-rides to Winnipeg. All delegates will look after their own expenses but special rates are provided. A man, a woman and a representative of the young Conservatives will comprise the trio who will represent North York."

"General feeling throughout the riding seems to be favorable to most of the proposals discussed by the meeting of the laymen of the party at Port Hope. I am convinced that a strong leader and a progressive platform will come forth from the Winnipeg convention. There is a good deal of enthusiasm being shown by party workers in many sections."

BROTHER HONORED

Rev. Brother Dennis, F.S.C., De LaSalle college, Aurora, who this month is celebrating his 50th anniversary as a member of the Order of Christian Brothers, was greeted by hundreds of former pupils on Tuesday afternoon at DeLaSalle, Oaklands, Toronto, at a public reception given in his honor.

DOWN THE CENTRE

Del. Beaumont, captain of last year's Aurora junior team and one of the finest players ever to perform with the locals, will shortly make his debut in junior A hockey with Marlborough juniors. It is Del's last season in the age class and we would like to see him have a big season. Already he is being labelled as a "find" by the Toronto sports writers. He was the leading scorer on the Aurora team last year and a quiet, easy to handle, and a gentleman on and off the ice, the Glen Williams boy, while not spectacular, has everything to send him far in a professional career, provided that the war does not interfere.

Lorne Evans, last year with Milton, awaits his second army call and meanwhile tends the nets for Marlborough and in practice for the Leafs. The Toronto Ducks have quite an array of talent this year and many former local group players are trying out. From Etobicoke, Ross Johnstone, who at 15 was last year a stand-out, and his defence buddy, Paul Masterson, from the Indians, and Coates of Brampton, who played with Milton last year, are all in action. Jackie Watson is trying out.

Bonnie Rowe of last year's Markham team, who was signed to a professional contract by the Maple Leafs and then turned over for seasoning to the Providence Reds, was unable to obtain permission from National Selective Service to get across the border. He will start the season with Marlborough. Rowe received an army call and was classified C. It is astounding how many fellows who are able to play well games of hockey, soccer, rugby or some other strenuous sport turn out to be low category men when they get their medical.

Don. Webster of Islington was able to obtain a permit for the States and is already on the scoring sheet in the minor pro ranks. Wise, who played goal, and Ding, Ingoldby, nifty defence player with DeLaSalle college in the prep school series last season, are also trying out for the Marlies. Ingoldby, whose father was a star before him, was, in our opinion, one of the greatest junior players ever to play in the local arena. Single-handed almost he beat St. Andrew's last year. This summer he played football with Joint McComb's "Zephyr" team in the Mount Albert tournament.

Harold Ballard, manager of National Sea Fleas when they won the senior O.H.A. title and of that junior team which just about eliminated Newmarket Redmen the year they won the Dominion title, will mastermind the Toronto team this season. So all the lads will receive a full trial before being cut loose, which is a whole lot more than can be said of the past few years with Toronto clubs in junior.

Army daggies will be on display in the senior O.H.A. series before you read this column but, as we forecasted, the soldier board of strategy has scouted nearly every centre in the district for talent and many so-called military transfers have gone through to send bigger and better players to Toronto and Coach Tracy Shaw.

"Lefty" Newbold from Newmarket camp, who was with Niagara Falls last year, either has been transferred to Toronto from No. 23 B.T.C. or else will commute back and forth. Lloyd Finkbeiner, who played for Midland against Sutton last season and was the star of the Camp Borden military team, is also with the Daggies. He is the property of Detroit Redwings in civilian life.

Lloyd Shuttleworth, who played for Waterloo Siskins against Aurora Tigers, has been transferred from Brantford training centre. Shuttleworth was a member of the Brantford camp's football team which played against Wes. Niles and his mates twice this year at Brantford.

These are a few of the moves made in the interests of, shall we say, military efficiency. The army, which has let the air force and the navy steal a lot of the glamour away from them in the present war, should be able to hold their own, and look what classy uniforms they have. We saw a sample sweater in a Toronto sporting goods shop last week and our eyes popped out to see what the khaki warriors will wear on the ice. The body of the sweater is red, with white trimmings and a white Maple Leaf bearing the word "army" in red. On the sleeves are white commando daggers.

Benny Harris, who helped Sutton win their title last year, is reported as intending to play at Ravinia rink with the mercantile team, coached by his buddy, Jack Culverwell. At last reports Benny was in khaki and at Camp Borden. Don't be surprised if he isn't another military transfer, or he may have been discharged.

Prep. school rugby play Trinity and Upper Canada play their 50th contest in the same arena, one of the recent ones at 41 occasions. The Aurora preppers are setting a record in reverse this year. We doubt if any team in Canada has ever had as many points scored against them and scored less than this year's team coached by Norman Lane. We are saving the final count until the end of the season. Meanwhile Ridley college became the point a minute team of the year with that crushing 70-0 win.

Pete Dillman, now attending Galt aircraft school, will be a candidate for the net-minding job for Galt's junior B team. Willie Beresford, who captained Aurora juniors two years ago, is stationed at Mountain View with the R.C.A.F. and will be reunited with this year with his old teammate, Norman Mabley, who is at the same station. Bill's brother, Jack Beresford, is with the birdmen at Jarvis.

Aurora Lawn Bowling club, along with most Aurora properties, was spared misfortune on Halloween night. Last year the clubhouse was just about ruined and the grounds were cut up too. The club had a sentry on duty this year, but no damage was attempted.

Agincourt bowlers, we notice, have reorganized for next season, which seems a good plan. A. M. Walton, one of the best known district bowlers, heads the men's section at Agincourt and Mrs. W. J. Elliott, the ladies' group. The club contributed $20 to the Red Cross from their treasury.

Jimmy Lowe is the ace of the R.C.A.F. team in the British Columbia senior series, which has just got under way. Vancouver, strangely enough, has no rink, and must go 12 miles to New Westminster to see the games.

Marj McCannan is continuing her softball season, playing in the R.C.A.F. indoor league at the Coliseum all winter. She will play basketball, too.

Hay Hayes of Barrie juniors, who played junior C and B in successive years against Aurora juniors, is overseas with the army now and is already back at the puck game in Scotland with his unit's team.

Doug McLeod, who was with Markham juniors last year and with the Kingsway club last year, is with the navy senior team this year.

Bobby Lynn, who signed with Markham after playing in the S.P.A. series and then was "traded" to Native Sons for Jimmy "Red" Young last year, is also with the tars. Billy Wilson and "Scotty" Mair are certain starters to give Newmarket-Aurora fans something to root for. Boyd Matchett, who played for U.T.S. last year against both St. Andrew's and Aurora, and Mike Osborne, who did the same thing for U.C.C. against the same two clubs a season or two earlier, are other boys "Pick" Hines has on tap if he needs them. There will be practically none of that brilliant H.M.C.S. York team which battled Sutton Greenhairs last year available, as the silent service has most of them in the front line.

Owen Sound arena directors will not back their hockey and lacrosse teams to the extent they have in the past. Now they are limited by by-law to a mere $1,500 per year. This amount is to be raised from the sale of programs and refreshments at the rink. There are a lot of hockey executives in this neck of the woods who would be overjoyed to have the opportunity of a similar set-up, let alone what has gone on in the past.

Test. Sheridan has been playing a bit of rugby at Rockcliffe R.C.A.F. centre this fall but, of course, has not had enough experience yet to make the senior team. He is being counted on as a certainty for the fliers' basketball team. The Whitechurch town-ship had a stand-out performer during his court career at Aurora high school and should make good in faster company.

Keith Knowles, a member of the Aurora juniors of championship days, even if he didn't play regular, has arrived overseas with the Irish after being on service in Canada for two years.

Harry Lavender of Vancourt, a crack soccer player, also got across the pond with the killed laddies.

"Pinky" Weatherill, nifty Markham wing star of the past two years, while still having another year in junior hockey, has joined the active army. Weatherill, whose correct moniker is Lloyd, got the name "Pinky" from his leech-like style of checking. "Jackie" Collins, "Nick" Bangay, "Kippie" Northcott and Doug McLeod are others of last year's team with the armed forces.

Barrie Colts, with no junior B grouping possible this season, have entered a Junior A team this season. The Colts will receive a bye until the play-offs start and will then cash in on at least a couple of cushy games. It is four years since Barrie managed to get out of their group and last season's team, coached by Larry Molyns, managed to win only one game all season. Most of that team are elsewhere now and it would seem that the Colts management must be depending heavily on players in the armed forces at Camp Borden. We understand that the team will play a home exhibition game each week to keep in shape. Leighton ("Happy") Emms, former pro player and coach will be in charge of the team.

A long and honorable career in hockey, if we remember rightly, Barrie, although having many good teams, has won only one hockey championship, that in junior B in 1935. In the same series they have twice been finalists. In 1918 the Simcoe centre reached the junior A finals with a strong team, only to lose out to a DeLaSalle team 10-8 on the round. Jack Cain, former Newmarket boy, was a member of the DeLaSalle team. The Barrie team (and we are now depending on memory) included "Dinty" Moore in goal, Tex White, Sutherland, Henry and Gordon Meekling, Dymond and Babe Bogardis, one of the best junior teams ever assembled anywhere. By one of those coincidences, Barrie's return to junior A hockey will come the same year that "Dinty" Moore, the goalie of the '18 team, is elevated to the presidency of the O.H.A. after a distinguished hockey career: mostly spent with Port Colborne. He succeeds this month Ross Clemens of Hamilton and should prove a capable proxy, for he knows all the angles as a player, referee, manager, coach and executive. It will be no bed of roses to handle things the next two years either.

Pre-season hockey, by which we mean the S.P.A. series, will not be held this year, after many years of useful service. Teams got a chance to size up their players in competition, the outside centres and all players received needed conditioning, and the sportsman's patriotic fund received the proceeds for useful charity work. If a team went far enough too, it also made a bit of money. Lack of teams and travelling difficulties are the reasons given for the temporary suspension of the series. Markham reached the B finals last year. Aurora reached the semi-finals three years ago and Newmarket won the A series back in 1928. Winning the S.P.A. series was generally the jinx to winning out later in the year, with, as we recall it, only one or two exceptions.

Steve Young, veteran Richmond Hill footballer, is stationed with the army at Sussex, N.B. His brother, Walt, Young, who played both lacrosse and hockey for the Hill, is a lance-corporal after six weeks of training with the army service corps at Simcoe, while younger brother, Frankie, just turned 18 and yet to win athletic spurs, is stationed at Peterboro camp. Frank was a member of the Queen's Yorks until October.

Bruno Cavillo, former Bradford netminder in lacrosse, is also stationed at Simcoe and, like Walt, Young, sports a stripe on his tunic now. Both boys were in the same class of rookies. "Dinty" Scott, who was third high scorer in the intermediate series and starred for Collingwood against Sutton last year, is now stationed with the army at Edmonton, Alta., and scheduled to play for the army team in the Alberta senior league. He is a Barrie product.

Ernie James, former Bradford and Aurora lacrosse star and a brother of "Fat" James, has been transferred to the ordinance corps overseas and writes as follows concerning things: "English hospitality is still as unlimited as ever and we all have a good time when not on duty or working (there sure is plenty of work)." Ernie doesn't like the climate as well as the people, for he says it's very damp.

"Fat" James arrived in England with Major Connie Smythe last week. A member of the Aurora junior team, which lost out to Orangeville in 1933, he has a buddy in his battery Doug, filletup, who captained the Orangeville team that year and was the nemesis to Aurora's hopes in those hectic games in Maple Leaf Gardens. Both boys were smart lacrosse players too, James with Mimico, and Gillespie with Etobicoke. In the army they teamed up this year as members of the Victoria service team in the B.C. league.

"Joint" McComb is another Sutton Greenhair who will play mercantile hockey in the west Toronto league, with his buddy, Jack Culverwell, coach. He will not be seen in action in the senior series. His still gets called "Bill" in place of his right name, Eugene, by the press agents for the circuit.

Jack Pennock, who is now an Aurora business man after being rejected for active service, is the former Stouffville southpaw who twirled some fine ball a few years back. A few years ago in Newmarket he twirled a one-hit game against Newmarket in the league play-offs. Stouffville won on the game 2-1 and we think Charlie Thoms and "Shorty" Turan were on the points for Newmarket. Later he played some hardball in Toronto.

Earl Cook is back north after a good season with Neumant in the Texas league and is again residing in the Stouffville district. Underland he will be engaged in war work for the winter, and next year if big league baseball is still being played he will receive another chance for either Detroit or at least Buffalo.

Hitch-hiking is one form of procedure the army doesn't provide for and is definitely trying to stamp out even if the majority of motorists are only too pleased to give a soldier a lift. Answer to the whole thing would be to provide free transportation for the boys at certain definite times.

New army game is calculated to beat the present rulings from M.D. 2. The boys buy a bag of

MOVIES PARADE

John Carroll comes to the screen as a debonair adventurer in the Canadian wilds in "Pierce of the Plains," a thrilling story of a lovable renegade at constant odds with the "mounties." The picture comes Friday to the Strand theatre.

Opposite him is Ruth Hussey, playing her first outdoor adventure role. Based on the character created by Edgar Selwyn in the stage play of some years ago, which proved one of the most successful in years, the picture retains the title and the central character, but the story is entirely new and laid in the Canadian northwest of today.

There is double satisfaction in the picture, "Tortilla Flat," for those who read John Steinbeck's novel, and for those who missed it. The film brings his memorable characters to life, recreating the picturesque California colony of paisanos near Monterey.

Spencer Tracy, Hedy Lamarr and John Garfield co-star in the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer adaptation, which opens Monday at the Strand.

The supporting cast is superb, faithfully reflecting the lovable characters of the novel. They include the inimitable Frank Morgan, with Akim Tamiroff, Sheldon Leonard, John Qualen, Donald Meek, Connie Gilchrist, Allen Jenpeanuts, with the shells on whenever possible, and while there is a rule against thumping rides there's nothing that says a man can't flip peanut shells over his shoulder. How can the Axis hope to down boys with such ingenuity?

kins and Henry O'Neill. Tracy's role is a distinct departure from any of his previous characterizations. As the philosophical Pilon, drawn between the good and bad of life, he reaches a high peak in his career. Miss Lamarr, as Dolores, a desirable paisano charmer, demonstrates her dramatic abilities beyond anything she has yet attempted. John Garfield, her suitor, the lazy, impetuous Danny, is at his best.

The background of picturesque Monterey, the paisano settlement with its tumbledown shacks, its flower gardens, and the sweep of the bay beyond, have been achieved with artistry.

The pulsing action of the love story, the battles and the tranquil interludes, have been captured under Fleming's direction by a cast of unusual competence and understanding.

One of the season's strongest films will make its debut next Wednesday at the Strand theatre when "Juke Girl" starts its run. In the starring roles are alluring Ann Sheridan, fresh from her triumph in "Kings Row," and Ronald Reagan who has an impressive list of fine performances to his credit. The supporting roles are made up of such Hollywood favorites as Richard Whorf, (remember his grand portrayal in "Blue in the Night") George Tobias, G. Lockhart, Alan Hale, Betty Brewer and many others.

A large number from here attended the euche at Lloydown on Friday evening. There were 23 tables of euche and the evening was a decided success.

Those who spent the weekend at their homes included Misses Lillian Edgar, Molly Mitchell, Muriel Wood and Mr. Wm. Stonehouse. Mr. Harry Ellison and daughter, Betty, of Toronto, spent the weekend with friends in town.

ST. PAUL'S ENTERTAINS MEN FROM MILITARY CAMP

Armistice services were held morning and evening at St. Paul's Church of England on Sunday. Men in the service from the Newmarket military camp attended in the evening. Capt. Rev. A. W. Downer, chaplain at the camp, assisted at the service.

Capt. Downer addressed the meeting of the Anglican Young People's Association on Tuesday evening.

This afternoon the Women's Auxiliary is holding its monthly devotional and business meeting. Next Thursday the ladies will pack the annual bale of Christmas gifts for the needy white settlers of the Canadian northwest and the usual bale of warm used clothing. Contributions will be welcomed and appreciated.

There was a fireside hour in the parish hall on Sunday evening after the service. The soldiers present were given an opportu-ity to meet members of the congregation. They were given a cordial invitation by the rector, Rev. G. H. Johnson, to attend the meetings of any of the church organizations in which they might be interested, especially the A.Y.P.A. men's club and the badminton club.

The W.A. secretary of social service, Mrs. A. Thompson, still has a few church calendars for anyone not already supplied.

FRED: "Who? Me? How does my insurance help finance the war?"

FRANK: "Why, brother, on an average, Canada's four million policy owners have premium savings of over $112 invested in war loans, enough to buy 18,000 of these battling Spitfires."

How can a dollar be in two places at once?

THAT'S easy, if it's an insurance dollar.

You put this dollar into an insurance premium, and you say to yourself, there's my dollar, as safe as a church.

And so it is.

But if you think that your dollar just sits still in a big vault and twiddles its thumbs until you're ready to take it back in some form of benefits—either for yourself or your family—you're mistaken.

If you looked for that dollar you'd find it was busy.

You'd find that that dollar has gone to war! Just where you'd want it to go.

Your premium dollars, and millions of others, have been loaned to your government to help carry our arms to victory.

Instead of those dollars in the vault, there is a pile of War Bonds. And they are as safe as a church, too. All the enormous resources of Canada are behind them. There is no safer investment in the world.

That is why over another hundred and fifty million dollars of insurance savings have been invested by life insurance companies in the latest Victory Loan—making a grand total of over four hundred and fifty million dollars in war bonds. And that's an average of over $112 so invested for every insured person in Canada.

So you can feel doubly happy about every dollar you have put into insurance. It protects you and your dependents—and at the same time it helps to protect the whole nation—by supplying the tools of victory.

Victory is everybody's business. Everyone should work, save and lend to the limit.

TO THE EDITOR

Editor, The Era and Express:
I'm now back in the groove after returning from leave and I certainly enjoyed meeting old friends again.

My biggest or closest friend out here of course is the "Era-Express" which reaches me with regularity each week.

Had the pleasure of meeting up with two popular Newmarket sailors this week. They are Eddy Mosley and Fred Bray.
They arrived last week and are now stationed in our barracks here. It was good seeing them and every noon hour we get together for an interesting confab about Newmarket and Aurora.

Eddy and Freddy both like it out here and are in the best of health.

Ice skating, roller skating and cycling are the most popular sports just now here on the island, swimming too, if one likes salt water at a low temperature.

Dancing and bowling are also quite popular sports for the energetic, while there are many romantic spots for the masoch-ists, "wolves," as is the navy term.

I'm enclosing a snap of a tandem (bicycle built for two) that my chum and I rented out here last Sunday. My chum, Gordon Dall, is stern while I'm at the helm of our double-seated land ship.

It is a great rig for convoy duty around the parks and streets for lone feminine cyclists.

All in all, we have a very enjoyable time when we go ashore.

I must close with best wishes and remembrance from Eddy,
Freddy and myself to all.

Sincerely,
Bob Benville,
R.C.M.V.R.

LAURA MARY PEDLAR

WED IN TORONTO

Epworth United church, Toronto, decorated with pink and white mums, was the setting for a pretty wedding, with Rev. R.
V. Kendall officiating, when Laura Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Pedlar, formerly of Keswick, now of Toronto, became the bride of William Nobles, son of F. W. Nobles, and the late Mrs. Nobles, of Winnipeg, on Oct. 23, in a double ring ceremony. The bride formerly attended Newmarket high school.

The wedding march was played by Charles Duff, Toronto.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father. She looked lovely robed in a gown of moonlight satin, with sweetheart neckline, her fingertip veil of illusion falling from a halo of lace and seed pearls. Her bou-quet was red roses. She also carried a lovely old lace handkerchief 70 years old given her by Mrs. David Earl of Sutton
West, who carried it on her own wedding day.

The bride was attended by her only sister, Marge, gowned in baby blue net over tulle with matching halo, and carrying pink bryarleaf roses. During the signing of the register a beautiful solo was rendered by Miss Della Boulter, Mimico, gowned in wine blue with corsage of talisman roses.

The best man was Robert Young. Ushers were Harry Bamford and Everett Newman.
The reception afterwards was at Haddon Hall.

The bride's mother received.
With her was Mrs. Grant Nobles, aunt of the groom.

Montreal and Ottawa the newlyweds will reside in Toronto. For travelling the bride chose a fuchsia colored two-piece ensemble, black coat with fitch collar, matching accessories and corsage of red roses.

Out-of-town guests were Mr.
and Mrs. E. Morton, Mrs. L. B.
Pollock, all of Keswick, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Collins of Newmarket.

MOUNT ALBERT THANK-OFFERING GOES OVER $500 OBJECTIVE

The United church anniversary services this year will long be remembered, as lovely weather helped the people attend and Rev. Mr. Atkinson of Uxbridge gave a splendid message.

"At anniversary time do not look back on all the things you have accomplished in the past as a church, but rather look forward to the future to all you can and are going to do," he said.

The choir gave several fine selections in the service of song, under the leadership of J. Smith, and the organist, Mrs. Haigh. The church was beautifully decorated with "mums by the Cherrie class."

On Monday evening the Markham dramatic club of the United church put on a play, "We're in the Army Now," to a crowded house and it was exceptionally good and the young people took the parts in an excellent manner.

The thank-offering asked for, of $500, went over the top. Mrs. Ciglen and baby, of Meaford, have been staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Stiver. Mr. and Mrs. W. Archer of Elmville spent a few days at the home of Mrs. Archer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Sinclair, recently.

POLICE COURT CITY LAWYER CLOCKED AT 68 MILES PER HOUR

After adjourning the case of James Kilpatrick, Holland Landing, for a week for sentence, Magistrate W. F. Woodliffe, in Newmarket police court on Tuesday, gave the 20-year-old youth a suspended sentence and placed him on probation for one year.

The youth, found guilty last week of killing a sow belonging to a neighbor, Marius Neilson, Holland Landing, by running it down with his truck while chasing it out of his field, was liable to a maximum jail term of 14 years.

Handing his worship a petition, signed by a long list of friends and neighbors, attesting to the youth's good character, Crown Attorney N. L. Mathews, K.C., said that the signature of Marius Neilson, owner of the sow, was included in the list.

Questioned by the crown as to whether restitution had been made, Mr. Neilson stated that Kilpatrick had paid him $130 for the sow.

"Mr. Kilpatrick, this is a very serious thing that you did," commented his worship. "It was a very cruel, callous and unnecessary thing to do to chase that sow around the field with a truck. However, I think that you have learned your lesson. It has cost you $130. I am going to place you on suspended sentence for one year. You must pay the costs."

That is one of the terms of the probation.

Because they did not appear to receive sentence on a charge of giving liquor to minors, on which they were found guilty three weeks ago, his worship ordered that a warrant be issued for the arrest of Betty Morden and William Morden of York township.

"I think the negligence in the case amounts to careless driving," Magistrate Woodliffe announced when he fined Roy Smith, Midland, $5 and costs or five days, on a charge of driving without due care and attention to other persons using the highway. His worship also found him guilty on a charge of leaving the scene of an accident and fined him $10 and costs. Mr. Smith pleaded not guilty to both charges.

Testifying that at 10:45 p.m. on Sept. 3 he was driving north on the east side of the highway between Keswick and Sutton with his lights dimmed and at about 25 miles an hour, James W. Stephenson, Keswick, told his worship that an approaching car, which was driven by the defendant, collided with the rear of his car.

He stated that the driver had flicked his lights a couple of times and then came suddenly towards his car. He put on his brakes and swerved in an attempt to avoid the collision.

The witness went on to say that instead of stopping to render assistance and give his name and address, Mr. Smith drove his car on and did not stop until he, the witness, stopped him in Keswick after giving chase.

"Did you notice anything about the accused?" asked the crown.

"I'd say that he had been drinking," replied Mr. Stephenson. "I didn't smell anything on him but he staggered and did not seem to understand what we were saying. He accused me of running into him."

Mr. Stephenson also said that he called Constable Morton, to whom he later pointed out the place where the collision had taken place.

In the witness-box Miss L. Andrews, Keswick, a passenger in the previous witness's car, testified that Mr. Smith had flicked his lights and then drove into their car. She identified the place where the collision had taken place as about 20 rods from where she lived.

According to Constable Carl Morton, who arrived about 11 p.m. and found the left rear fender of the Stephenson car damaged and the Smith car "badly brushed," he said that Mr. Smith was unsteady on his feet but that he did not detect the odor of alcohol on him.

"I asked him why he did not stop and he didn't give any reason," the officer stated.

Questioned by defence counsel, Charles Evans, Bradford, the witness stated that Mr. Smith told him that he was insured and was willing to pay the damages.

Mr. Smith, who is chief steward on a steamer which docks at Midland, told the court that he had flicked his lights as he was passing the Stephenson car in order to get the driver to dim his lights.

He said that he did not know that he had hit the other car and thought the noise that he heard was a stone hitting the under side of his car. He denied that he had been drinking and stated that he walked with a limp.

Mr. Evans argued that he did not think that the defendant had been driving in a manner disregarding others using the highway. He said that he believed that glaring lights were the cause of the accident and the case one to be dealt with by a civil court.

"I can't see that this man had much excuse for doing as he did," pronounced his worship. "According to Stephenson, he himself was driving with a down beam. He was quite honest in his evidence and I believe his story. The accused was very vague in his story. He did not give any explanation that night as to why he went into the other car. I don't know why he drove off as he did, but he did drive off. I find him guilty of driving off without tendering assistance."

Finding Louis Raxlen, Toronto barrister, guilty of a charge of speeding on Yonge St. on Sept. 23, Magistrate Woodliffe fined him $25 and costs or ten days. The defendant, who pleaded not guilty in court last week, contended that he had been going 10 miles an hour.

"This is a case of straight speed," stated Provincial Constable Alex. Ferguson. "I clocked him and I was within 15 feet of him. I feel I gave him a very fair clocking. I was trying to clock him at 70 miles an hour. When I couldn't do this, I clocked him at 68, at which he was going."

He said the charge of 85 miles an hour in order to allow him any doubt. The officer said that he followed Mr. Raxlen's car for a distance of two miles.

"Mr. Raxlen, in this case the officer swears that you were going 65 miles an hour," stated Magistrate Woodliffe. "The evidence in your behalf is that you were going 40 miles an hour. I'm not particularly impressed by that evidence. The officer could be out in his clocking but he couldn't be out 25 to 28 miles an hour. However, I'll give him the benefit of the doubt that the officer could be out about five miles an hour. There'll be a conviction."

After hearing evidence in a charge of careless driving against Frank Wist, R. 2, Newmarket, Magistrate Woodliffe concluded that the case was one to be dealt with by a civil court rather than a criminal court and dismissed the charge.

The charge against Mr. Wist arose out of an accident which had taken place at 4 a.m. Oct. 21, just north of Richmond Hill, when the truck he was driving crashed into the rear of a transport which was loaded with timber poles.

According to Constable Ferguson, who investigated, he estimated the damage to the defendant's car at about $500 and that of the transport at $100. He said that when he asked Mr. Wist about the lights on his truck the latter told him that he had been having trouble with them along the route.

Mr. Wist said that he had had trouble with his lights on the way down to Toronto and while there purchased some fuses at a garage but that these blew out on the way home and he had to put a nail into the fuse-box to make them work. He said that he saw the clearance lights on the transport but did not see the poles until he was almost upon them.

He put on his brakes but was unable to avoid crashing into the poles.

At the request of the defence a

was delayed by a bomber show over Britain put on by the Nazis. "We saw the German planes drop their flares and we saw our ack-ack guns go into action. It was like the fireworks display at the C. N. E. While nice to look at, we realized that people were losing their homes and perhaps their businesses. Our planes were delayed one and a half hours."

Mr. Charters told of the planes returning. "A for apple—may I land, may I land, A for apple." A girl at the radio gave permission and instructions. The second or third plane to return asked permission to land at another field because of engine trouble. Fourteen of fifteen planes returned. We finally gave up waiting and went to breakfast. Then we were called to see the return of 'D for Donald,' the fifteenth plane. He had two engines knocked out and the plane was riddled with gun fire."

Mr. Charters said that General MacNaughton, Mr. Churchill and members of the cabinet were full of praise for what Canada is doing.

General MacNaughton had been really responsible for the press trip, Mr. Charters said. He was anxious to have the press interpret the army to the Canadian public and what the Canadian public is thinking to the army and other Canadian forces.

"General MacNaughton realizes the importance of the press," said Mr. Charters. "He realizes that information begets knowledge, and that knowledge begets freedom. A free press means free citizens."

Mr. Charters related after the meeting one of his most interesting experiences. He went to a well-known army town of 20,000 people to find one of his two sons. He had not been allowed to tell him that he was coming. He had learned that his son was in this town attending a theatre. There were six or eight theatres in the town. How was he to find his son?

Someone suggested that he enlist police help. The police put the soldier's "wind up" when they had all the theatres in town flash on the screen that he was wanted at police headquarters. He was relieved and amazed to find that it was his father who wanted him, and that there was no bad news about his brother Bob in the air force. The army son is Lieut. Sam. Charters, a former student at Pickering College.

Of his night at an R.A.F. air station Mr. Charters said: "It is a hellish business, but the way the boys tackle the job is encouraging. They are doing their bit, as you men did your bit, so that we may be saved a similar experience 25 years hence."

Of the army manoeuvres Mr. Charters said: "General MacNaughton and all our people over there are not asleep."

About his visit to the navy and his conversation with men who had been at Dieppe Mr. Charters said: "It was proved beyond doubt at Dieppe that man for man our boys are more than the equal of the Germans."

President Frank Bowser was in the chair. J. O. Little, a former resident of Peel county, and an old friend of the Charters family, introduced Mr. Charters.
